INTERLAKEN ADVENTURES

For a change, enjoy a bird's eye view of the Interlaken holiday region. Paragliding lets you sneak a peek at breathtaking views of the vast mountain and lake scenery.

FAIRY-TALE CASTLES BY THE LAKE

Right on the shores of Lake Thun are five magnificent castles with spacious grounds, the perfect setting to experience the life of the nobility in the turbulent Late Middle Ages.

THE LAKES OF BRIENZ AND THUN

Water is certainly the element of choice around Interlaken, with opportunities to enjoy some stand-up paddling with magnificent views, a relaxing lunch on board a cruise ship, a refreshing dip, or a sailing course.

ADELBODEN - LAND OF SCOOTER BIKE RUNS

A fun way to experience the legendary Adelboden landscape and take in the views is to travel the 45 km of scooter bike runs along seven exciting routes. A great summer experience for all the family.

ISLAND LIFE

The car-free St. Peter's Island on Lake Biel is certainly idyllic. The hike from Erlach through the nature reserve to the historical Klosterhotel is both pleasant and relaxing.

EMMENTAL SHOW DAIRY

How does the cheese get its holes? The Emmental Show Dairy has the answer to this question – and lots more to do with the manufacture of the famous Emmentaler AOP cheese.

IN TOLKIEN'S FOOTSTEPS

J.R.R. Tolkien is said to have come up with the idea for Rivendell in Lord of the Rings after hiking in the Lauterbrunnen valley. And no wonder: there are no fewer than 72 waterfalls gushing in this valley.

CYLING FUN

E-bike cycle tours are the perfect way to experience the landscape around Bern in all its diversity. Lots of sights and sites of natural beauty await you, along with culinary pit stops along the way.

A BALLenberg VISIT

The Ballenberg Open-air Museum is an opportunity to experience Switzerland up close. Discover more than 100 historical buildings, enthralling crafts, farm animals, and traditional gardens.

THE PEACE AND QUIET OF NATURE

Enjoy a delicious fondue in the heart of Gstaad's mountain scenery, courtesy of the vintage-look fondue backpack and seats shaped like four giant fondue pots. Enjoy!

HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES AT THE LAKE OESCHINEN

Whether it's hiking, boating or summer sledging, a trip to the Lake Oeschinen at the UNESCO World Heritage site is a unique experience.

JUNGRAUJOCH - TOP OF EUROPE

Board the Eiger Express and Jungfrau Railway and travel up in complete comfort to Europe's highest railway station (at 3,454 m above sea level). Once there admire stunning, breathtaking views of a world filled with ice, snow, with sheer cliffs.

Lake Brienz by kayak

How about a change of pace from the piste? A winter kayak tour is an opportunity to enjoy peace and tranquillity, as well as views of snow-covered mountains from a completely different perspective.

Engstligenalp Dream Igloo

Fancy a fondue by candlelight at Europe's largest igloo restaurant? Followed later on by sweet dreams overnight inside a romantic accommodation igloo? It's all possible at the Engstligenalp winter wonderland.

Floating above the abyss

Crossing the Peak Walk by Tissot at Glacier 3000 genuinely is a once-in-a-lifetime experience. The 107 m suspension bridge is open all-year round.

Reliving history

In Bern's 'Museum District' you'll find, among others, the Museum of Communication and the Bern Historical Museum. With their interactive exhibitions they are guaranteed to thrill and inspire all age groups.

Small, family-friendly ski areas

Delightful ski areas in the alpine foothills such as the Axalp and the Niederhorn in the Interlaken holiday region are a treat for the whole family.

Ice skating in Interlaken

The ice-skating setting of the ICE MAGIC Boutique Interlaken is a dream skating spot. Afterwards, why not warm up with a hot drink in the cosy Winter Lounge?

Pure relaxation in Gstaad

Relaxing and taking a time out are just as important. The motto 'Come up, slow down' certainly sets the tone when it comes to enjoying the soothing packages on offer at Gstaad's many spa hotels.

Ski World Cup

The FIS Ski World Cup races in Wengen (against a backdrop of Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau) and on the 'Chuenisbärgli' in Adelboden are genuine crowd pullers offering world-class thrills.

Bern's Christmas markets

Aromatically spicy mulled wine and festively decorated stalls await not just at Bern's Sternenmarkt! Top tips: the Kamby Christmas market in Trubschachen and the Christmas market in Huttwil.

Hot pot with a view

Endless tobogganing fun

The Big Pintenfritz is one of the world's longest toboggan runs. After a 2.5-hour hike up to the Faulhorn, hurtle down the 15 km run back to Grindelwald.

Schilthorn-Piz Gloria

Whether it's on foot or on skis, seeing the shooting location for the James Bond movie 'On Her Majesty's Secret Service' is simply a must. Enjoy the stunning 360° panoramic views from the revolving restaurant.

A world of sweetness

Immerse yourself in the world of Camille Bloch and embark on an unforgettable journey of taste and discovery: Discover the history of the family business, take part in interactive experiments and experience the production of Ragusa and Torino.

Hasliberg hiking fun

Meiringen-Hasliberg has lots of signposted winter hiking trails and snowshoeing routes for the young and the young at heart. Indeed, few things are as satisfactorily enjoyable as the sound of crunching snow in a stunning winter wonderland.

So much to experience!

Welcome to the Region of Bern. Immerse yourself and experience its amazing diversity for yourself. madeinbern.com

Interlaken holiday region

Destination Bern
